I have such a sweet tooth. And I am very picky about what desserts I will eat. I stick mostly to the cakes and cookies and don't venture too far from that. So when I found a place that makes my favorite cake, red velvet ($4.50 a slice), I had to investigate.

When I took my first bite, I knew I'd found a winner. This cake was rich and heavy, and the frosting - which is key in making this dessert a hit or miss - wasn't dry or too sugary. The presentation was also nice.

The atmosphere was warm and inviting. They serve your sweets on cute plates, and the people who work there are friendly.
